

Women's Ministry 2024-25 Vision

For Women's Ministry in CCF this year, our goal is to encourage the women to cultivate deep and Christ-centered relationships with one another. Building these Christ-centered relationships involve vulnerability, accountability, and supporting each other in our personal walks with Christ as we navigate life in university together. We hope to create a comfortable space in Women's Min, where the women can be vulnerable and share freely about their struggles with sin, their sufferings, as well as their joys. Through this vulnerability, we would like to foster a community in which women are willing to hold their sisters in Christ accountable in a loving manner and also be held accountable by others. Accountability is an important aspect as it prevents us from keeping sin hidden, and therefore, spurs us on to repent. We hope that through accountability, we are able to point each other back to God and His Word so that we can work towards living in a way that glorifies God together. As Paul writes, we are to:

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God." - Colossians 3:16

As sisters in Christ, we aim to encourage one another to actively pursue Jesus in our daily lives. We are called to be intentional in our relationship with Him instead of complacent. This intentionality should not only pour out into our relationships within CCF, but also within our churches, on campus, and beyond. With this intentionality, we strive to show God's love and grace to everyone around us.

"And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near." - Hebrews 10:24-25

As young adults and as women, we are surrounded by the world's expectations. In the midst of all these opinions, we want to foster a community that sets their eyes on God, encouraging one another in our faiths. We want Women's Ministry to be a space for the women of CCF to navigate difficult topics and face challenges together, running with endurance the race that is set before us (Hebrews 12:1). We seek to follow the example of the early Christians, who fellowshiped, served, and lived life together in contrast with the society around them. We hope Women's Ministry will be a place where people can pursue God together, knowing that it is through Jesus that we are united.

“Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. 3 For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. 4 When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.” - Colossians 3:2

In order to make Women's Ministry a safe space for accountability and vulnerability, we will open up our home and foster a supportive, respectful environment for discussion. We will continue the Women's Ministry prayer groups and offer prompts that encourage sharing with one another. In order to support the women of CCF in walking in faith in their daily lives, we want to cover a variety of topics such as mental health, faith in our schooling and careers, women in leadership, and relationships. To serve the community around us, we plan to collaborate with Outreach Ministry and volunteer together with local organizations such as Scott Mission.
