

IG 2 Vision: 2025-2026

Faith that Translates into Daily Life

“Let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth” –1 John 3:18

My goal for IG 2 is for us not just to gain knowledge about the Bible, but to let Scripture transform the way we live. True faith in Christ is not empty talk, but seen in the way our actions reflect Him. Scripture calls us not only to listen but to do, not only to speak of love but to show it in action. I want each member to leave Bible study equipped to practically apply one thing they’ve learned into their week, so that God’s Word becomes visible in the way we live, love, and serve.

Heart before Habit

“The Lord does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart” –1 Samuel 16:7

As followers of Christ, our actions are meant to flow from the posture of our hearts. It is possible to go through the motions of “good Christian habits” yet miss the heart behind them. God desires more than outward obedience; He desires a heart that loves Him and loves others. That means everything we do as an IG, whether it’s studying Scripture, praying together, or serving one another, should come from genuine love and humility, not obligation. When our hearts are rightly aligned with God, our habits will naturally reflect His character. Our small group should be a place where heart posture shapes everything: how we treat one another, how we receive God’s Word, and how we respond in action. It’s not about checking off spiritual boxes; it’s about fostering true devotion to Christ and allowing His Spirit to transform us from the inside out.

Love in Action

“And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up on meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another” –Hebrews 10:23-24

The love Christ calls us to is not passive or surface-level; it’s sacrificial, intentional, and active. As a group, I want us to embody that love by investing deeply in one another’s lives, not just gathering once a week but walking together as brothers and sisters in Christ. This means carrying one another’s burdens, celebrating each other’s wins, and creating space for honesty and vulnerability where struggles can be shared without fear of judgment. We should not simply make each other feel better, but help one another be better – to grow in Christlikeness together. That requires more than kind words; it takes encouragement, accountability, prayer, and consistent action rooted in love. I want IG2 to be a place where people come because they see God at work in the relationships formed. In this way, our love for one another becomes a visible testimony of Christ’s love, drawing others closer to Him.
