

IG 4 Vision

We are striving to hold one another accountable to their walk with Christ through speech, behaviour, and conduct; to foster Christ-centered relationships; and to stay rooted in our faith in the Lord. These are the three main goals of our IG.

Christ-Centered Relationships:

“Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves”

Philippians 2:3 (NIV)

“Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.”

Colossians 3:13 (NIV)

“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another.”

John 13:34 (NIV)

Christ-centered friendships is where Jesus is our foundation, guide and purpose in connection with others. We essentially adopt the attitude of Jesus and serve as a reflection of God's loving nature. The essence of Christ's love is mirrored in our interactions with one another. These relationships are there to support each other through the mountains and valleys of life, as they ultimately point us toward a stronger understanding and relationship with Christ.

Establishing Christ-centered relationships allows us to provide accountability, encouragement, and mutual servitude. We seek to honour God in the way we treat one another, building our bonds based on biblical principles such as love, humility, forgiveness, and service. Instead of being driven primarily by self-interest, the relationship is rooted in shared faith, prayer, and a desire to grow spiritually together. That would include desire to keep God in our hearts, as well as shaping our attitudes and actions.

To guide us, together we can:

- Serve others, by putting others' interest before our own
- Forgive each other
- Encourage one another and building each other up

Rooted In Faith

"Direct my footsteps according to your word; let no sin rule over me."

Psalm 119:133 (NIV)

"fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God"

Hebrews 12:2 (NIV)

In a world of constant external distractions, staying rooted in our faith allows us to prioritize God and His Word above all else. We can look to Jesus as the cornerstone of our lives and do as He did. It is through this tether that we begin to lose the fear of man, and deepen our relationship with Him.

Constructing our identity is like building our house. When we build it on the rock (cornerstone), we can stand through the trials that come in the form of winds and floods. When we are rooted in our identity, we won't be swayed by external forces and we understand his promises. This is a reference to Matthew 7:24-29.

To guide us, together we can:

- Turning to God with our problems first
- Practicing + prioritizing our spiritual disciplines (reading the Bible, praying, attending church)

Accountability

“Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.”

James 5:16 (NIV)

“And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.”

Hebrews 10:24 (NIV)

Keeping one another accountable in our walk with Christ is essential for growing in our faith as a fellowship. We can remind one another to do as Jesus did, in love, and to help bear each other's burdens. By doing so, we can help each other grow in holiness.

To guide us, together we can:

- Pray for one another
- Encourage open discussion
