

Reinvigorating a Heart of Worship

1 John 4:10-11: This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

Matthew 28:18-20: Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

Mark 13:10, 30: ¹⁰*And the gospel must first be preached to all nations.* ³⁰*Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.*

One weakness that I see in CCF is an unintentional lack of focus on God when we are loving one another, as CCF is very good at loving and caring for one another, but not the best at focusing on why we should love and care for one another (cf. 1 John 4:10-11). Through participating in Large Group and Women’s Ministry events, while it is clear that CCF has a huge heart and capacity for hospitality, I see that a focus on outreach is not as present. I hope that CCF can be a place where outreach is both a priority, and an urgent heart attitude present in every aspect of our daily life. Through the Great Commission, Jesus calls us to make disciples of all nations (cf. Matthew 28:18-20). This sentiment is echoed in Mark where in His description of the End Times, Jesus says that the Gospel must first be preached to all nations before the passing of our generation (cf. Mark 13:10, 30). As students on a large and secular university campus, we have an amazing opportunity to direct all glory to God.

It is my hope that CCF will be full of Christians who happen to fellowship with one another, rather than people fellowshiping with one another who also happen to be Christian. In my time at CCF, I have been shown time and time again how CCF members are extremely willing to serve, learn, and grow in community. Strengths of CCF include caring for and loving one another, and through these gifts, I know that CCF can partner with God to reflect His love and bring Him glory as part of His Kingdom.

Outreach is often only thought of as street or campus evangelism, which can be extremely intimidating to many, myself included. While these are crucial forms of outreach, they are not the only kinds. My vision includes a variety of different methods of outreach, where CCF members can first practice outreach in their Investment Groups (IGs), before having opportunities of outreach-centered hospitality nights, while also having campus evangelism events. Practical points include intentional testimony sharing time first with one another in IGs, holding outreach-centered hospitality nights (Bring a Friend nights where we can bake Bible Study themed snacks for Bible Study together), and holding more campus evangelism events. I hope that CCF can gradually increase the urgency in our hearts for outreach, and really grow together in our love for Christ.

Hebrews 13:20-21: Now may the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, equip you with everything good for doing his will, and may he work in us what is pleasing to him, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen
