

Worship Ministry Vision 2025-2026

Ephesians 5:18-20

“But be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ”

Our vision is to cultivate a space at UTCCF where people can encounter God in a personal, genuine, and passionate way - “singing and making melody to the Lord with [our] hearts”. As leaders, we desire not only to guide worship, but also to model lives marked by joy, worship, and a heart surrendered to God (Rom 12:1)

A key focus for this year is to strengthen the sense of worship as a true, God-centered ministry. In the past, opportunities to connect more deeply as a team and to walk alongside each other spiritually was limited. We strongly feel led to cultivate practices that go beyond music, by fostering intentional times of fellowship, prayer, and bearing one another’s burdens (Gal. 6:2). We hope to structure our practices in a way that encourages both musical growth, as well as spiritual encouragement, where members regularly pray for one another and grow together in Christ (Heb. 10:24-25).

During our weekly Friday gatherings, we hope to begin each worship time with a call to worship - this can take the form of a short Scripture reading and reflection that orients our hearts toward God before singing. This will help remind us that worship is not simply music, but our response to God’s Word (Ps. 95: 1-2), as well as creating a smooth transition from casual fellowship at the start to a reverent and Christ-centered worship.

We recognize that many who attend CCF may be new to the faith or exploring what it means to follow Jesus. Since worship is a response to the gospel, we hope to be highly discerning in choosing songs. We will prayerfully seek God’s wisdom (James 1:5), and emphasize songs that clearly proclaim the truth of the gospel and exalt Christ. (Col.3:16), rather than focusing only on inward reflection. Our goal is to make sure that the words we sing are rooted in Scripture and point people to God’s character and saving work.

We are committed to equipping every team member with opportunities to grow in leadership and to serve boldly with confidence and excellence. We will try to intentionally check in on members, learn their strengths/weaknesses, and help them to discover joy and passion in a lifestyle of worship that extends beyond music (John 4:23-24). Specifically, we will have intentional conversations with members before they join the team about how we can support them in their spiritual lives and what they’re hoping to gain from this ministry/experience. Our prayer is that through this, each person would be built up in faith and grow in their love for Jesus and His church (1 Thess. 5:11).
